

Business Plan

MAKER'S PROJECT

JUNE 1, 2025

Handed in by

AMOUS Yasmine

DRESSLER Jasmine

JAIN Stuti

JAWABNAVIS Sai Premdeep

Supervisor

MARIE Galfre

Executive Summary

SWEET HOME – LYON'S FIRST DIGITAL-FIRST INTERNATIONAL BAKERY
BRINGING THE TASTE OF HOME TO EVERY DOORSTEP

PROBLEM AND MARKET GAP

In a multicultural city like Lyon – where over 17% of residents are foreign-born – thousands of expats experience emotional cravings for authentic sweets from home. Yet, the current food delivery landscape is dominated by local French offerings or generic options. Informal sellers on WhatsApp or WeChat lack quality control, hygiene standards, and reliable delivery.

→ Sweet Home bridges this gap!

We are Lyon's first online-only multicultural bakery, offering authentic Indian, German, Italian, and Chinese pastries and drinks – delivered fresh to your door!

OUR SOLUTION

- D2C model with dark kitchen production
- Fresh, handmade products using heritage recipes
- Seasonal and weekly rotating menu
- Same-day delivery via Uber Eats & Stuart
- Bilingual ordering platform with gifting and subscriptions

BUSINESS MODEL AND PRICING

- ✓ Affordable staples (e.g., Brötchen: €0.80)
- ✓ Premium items (e.g., Kaju Katli: €11.25)
- ✓ Average order value: €10.20
- ✓ Unit margins: 65–90%
- ✓ Break-even: Month 7 (March Y1)
- ✓ Net profit by Year 3: ~€850,000

TARGET MARKET

Location: Lyon Métropole

Personas: International students, young professionals, families from Germany, Italy, India & China

Estimated customer base: 30,000

High demand validated:

- 87% of Indian respondents would buy weekly
- 84% of Germans, 74% of Chinese, 70% of Italians express strong interest
- 300+ validated survey responses
- 5 cultural partnerships initiated

Executive Summary

MARKET OPPORTUNITY

- €13B bakery market in France (2024)
- Ethnic food demand rising across Europe
- Dark kitchens: €600–800M market in France
- Post-COVID delivery habits here to stay
- No online bakery currently addresses multiple cultural groups

MARKETING STRATEGY

Acquisition Channels:

- Paid social ads (CTR 5%, CPA €0.80)
- SEO + blog content
- Nano/micro influencers (CPA €3)
- WhatsApp/Facebook community groups (CPA ~€0–2)
- Cultural pop-up events (9–10/year)

LAUNCH PLAN

Q1	Teaser campaigns & early access
Q2	Multichannel launch + festival marketing
Q3 + Q4	Loyalty programs, offline pilots, SEO & menu testing

THE TEAM

Stuti

Marketing & Indian Product Expert

Premdeep

Distribution Lead & Chinese Product Specialist

Yasmine

Operations & Italian Baked Goods

Jasmine

Finance & German Product Expert

Our strengths:

- Indian and German background
- Expertise in finance, logistics, marketing, and operations

FUNDING NEED

We seek €100,000 in initial capital to:

- Secure and equip our certified dark kitchen
- Cover operating costs for the first 6 months
- Launch our brand with a strong digital & offline presence

Founder commitment: €8,000 in personal funds + student bank loans

VISION

To become Europe's go-to multicultural bakery, starting in Lyon, scaling through digital channels, and expanding to other expat hubs. By 2030:

- Open flagship cafés
- Launch lunchboxes, vegan lines, and cultural gift boxes
- Operate in 5+ EU countries
- Fully transition to zero-waste packaging

In one sentence:

Sweet Home turns nostalgia into a scalable, high-margin business by combining culinary authenticity, cultural relevance, and delivery-first convenience.